

Royat : Easter Holidays

From 3rd April to 2nd May, the Indigo campsite is organising a lively program of activities for the Easter holidays especially adapted for all ages of children, so that you can make the most of your stay at the foot of the Puy de Dôme .

Campsite Program:

Childrens activities: the campsite organises fun and creative morning workshops on a variety of themes: magic, breadmaking...
Free activity, twice a week, on the campsite

Easter egg hunt : on 4th April the Easter rabbit has planned a visit to the Indigo campsite ...
Free activity, on the campsite

Evening entertainment: A variety of different themed evenings will be organised on the campsite during the holidays including cinema evenings, games and storytelling.
Free activity, 3 times a week

And many other activities both free and paying will be organised on the campsite: tournaments, relaxation sessions...

Activities in the nearby area:

For those that love thrills and adventures, visit the Vulcania theme park, or go out and discover a real-life volcano by visiting Lemptégy. If you prefer to relax in thermal leisure baths, you can visit Royatonic. Or go and discover one of the great sites of the region of Auvergnate by visiting the Michelin Adventure Park, which retraces the history of the famous french brand ...

You can also check out our holiday ideas :

- Vulcania Week-end
- Water and Fire week

For more information call 04 73 35 97 05 or royat@camping-indigo.com

Please note that this program is not contractual and may be subject to change of modification.